Marsha Ross asked to speak briefly on CAGD. She said CAGD stands for Central Arizona Golf District. It is an all volunteer, non-profit organization that offers women of all skill levels a chance to compete and have fun playing golf. If you have an official GHIN handicap and are a member of a sanctioned women's league associated with the Arizona Golf Association you are eligible & welcome to join and participate in tournaments. It is $8.00 to join and they host 5-6 tournaments per year. There are 5 blind draw events which are held by local leagues at their own clubs one day a month during Blind Draw months. Cash is paid out to winners. For more information, Marsha suggested visiting their website at cagdgolf.org.

Teresa announced members volunteering for 2024 committee positions:

Karen Jones: Social Chair (replacing Marlene Gates), Mary Lawson: Chip ins and Birdies (replacing Pam Gwin), & Marlene Gates: GPDT (replacing Pepper Trautman).
